2 Wrap...

up for a film festival. Sundance, the must-attend event for indie flicks hoping to make it big, kicks off on January 21 in Park City, Utah. Unlike Cannes, it's a democratic affair: weekend passes giving access to multiple screenings and talks (festival.sundance.org) cost from £200. Stay at the Sundance Resort, in a ski area owned by Robert Redford (www.preferredresorts.com; doubles from £156, room only).
